Spirited with insightful poetry and prose, Winterland is a thought-provoking journey through a nostalgic Christmas. From the adventurous fjords of Norway to the pioneering holiday traditions of an Americana time gone by, this Christmas offering weaves together poetic reflections and meaningful short stories from two different yuletide lands and beyond. Winterland is a place where fishermen snowshoes trek, cathedral spires illuminate, a settlers hearth burns peacefully, and whims come alive east of the sun and west of the moon.
